News Updates

Parking

Students parked on campus without a pass or along the curb will be ticketed.

Parking passes may be purchased at the ASB office.

Also, this is a reminder that we are a closed campus. Students seen leaving campus or returning to campus risk losing their parking pass and/or detention.

Designer and Model Call

Project Re-Runway is happening October 6, 7-9pm, in the cafeteria. Project Re-Runway is a fun educational fundraiser for the Earth and French Club. Come and invite friends for a fun night out! Also Model call any gender or size or a Designer! We will find you a model. See Ms. Watts, NM306, after school, for more information.

Clubs

Young Democrats

Feeling Blue? Join young democrats! We're meeting to discuss politics and progress in NM207 at 7:30 on Wednesday mornings. Come join us for coffee and conversation. Bring a current event or issue you're interested in talking about!

Social Justice Club

If you are interested in learning about Social Justice issues, like, systemic racism, Black Lives Matter Movement, Take a Knee, Immigration Reform and other Social Justice issues, this is the club for you! Please come and share in a safe space with others who are promoting each other to be critical thinkers. We meet every Tuesday after school in New Main 106. Ms. Garcia and Ms. Dee would love to see you there.

Chess Club

The chess club meets in the library Tuesdays after school. It's fun! It's exciting! No experience necessary.
